

Speech and Language Support in the Classroom

Longdean School a Mathematics and Computing Academy
Speech and Language Base

NVQ Level 3 Qualification in Speech and Language Support for 11-16s—October 2017

This 3 day course is at NVQ Level 3, accredited by the QCA-approved awarding body Ascentis and moderated by ELKLAN.

Portfolio completion is certificated. There is the option of attending the training without completing a portfolio for accreditation.

The Longdean Speech and Language Base will offer the course for Secondary during the Autumn Term, 2017. Two days will be at Sir Frederic Osborn School, Welwyn Garden City. The third day will be at Longdean Base, with an opportunity to see SLCN resources.

The course uses materials created by ELKLAN to enable participants to:

- Feel more confident working with children and young people with a speech, language and communication need (SLCN)
- Be able to learn about and apply a range of classroom strategies for SLCN
- Understand their role in supporting the development of communication skills

2 October training will cover sessions 1—3, including: Communication and Memory. 2 November training will cover sessions 4-6, including Vocabulary, Expressive Language and Verbal Reasoning. The 4 December training will include Social Skills and supporting Phonological Awareness, as well as drawing all the training together.

Feedback from previous participants:

'I have more confidence in anticipating students' problems' Secondary History Teacher 'I now understand the SALT approaches and how they work for the child' Primary INCo 'This course should be converted into a compulsory module for Initial Teacher Training Secondary TA 'The course has been invaluable in giving me ideas ... and appreciating underlying difficulties—even for A-level students' Secondary English Teacher '
