

Social Stories Course from Collett Outreach

We are pleased to announce this 2-day course - FREE of charge for schools in DSPL7 area

Social Stories

Part 1: Thursday 29th November 2018 – 3:00-4:30 pm

Part 2: Thursday 6th December 2018– 3:00-4:30 pm

Social Stories were originally developed by American Carol Gray. They are designed to support children with Autism to cope with stressful situations, changes to routine etc. These sessions will give you an opportunity to learn more about how to write social stories as well as have a go at writing some for particular children/situations.

Part 1 - We will look at the theory behind Social Stories and the formula you will need to follow to write a successful one, as well as having the opportunity to begin writing your own.

Part 2 - Come back with some Social Stories you have written (and maybe tried out with your pupils) to share with the group, expand on etc., as well as having some time to support each other with writing some more.
